

February

Language Calendar 2021

Make a valentine and take it to someone special 	Put away your clothes in your drawers; label the drawers (top, middle, bottom)	Hide paper hearts in the house; look for them and talk about where you found them	Make up a pretend animal; talk about what it looks like	Go to the library and check out a book about polar bears
Go for a ride in the car. Go to www.moogcenter.org for language ideas 	Name three emergency vehicles; talk about who drives each of them	Make a snack for your family; ask everyone what they want to eat	Cut out hearts of different sizes; put them in order from smallest to biggest 	Making pink or red Jell-O; talk about each step
On Presidents' Day, talk about who our President is and what he does	Practice turning off your hearing aid or cochlear implant and changing the battery; talk about each step	Talk about ways to answer the question "How are you?" 	Get a haircut; talk about how it looks before and after the haircut	Find objects that start with
Look in your fridge; talk about the foods you see and their colors 	Practice counting from a specific number (start counting at 6...7,8,9)	Talk about the steps for taking a bath	Get out some money and label each coin or bill 	Predict the weather for the week; make a chart to show what you think will happen
Have a sleepover; talk about what you need	Count the number of tables you have in your house	At the end of the day, talk about what you ate for breakfast, lunch and dinner	Name three of your favorite beverages	Make tacos; talk about what you will put on them 